

December 2005

Christmas is a good time to remember all the great things God has done for us. He has blessed us in so many ways! One of these ways is through our families. Being Stateside allows us to spend precious times with parents, siblings, children and grandchildren. The picture below shows us holding all three of our darling grandkids over the Thanksgiving weekend.

Christmas is also a time to remember that God gave us the most precious gift when He gave us His Son, Jesus. But there are still billions in this world who are lost and do not know how to receive this gift. We look forward to continuing our partnership with you through 2006 as we return to Zambia in a few months, where we are seeking to train and equip those God is calling to reach the lost and establish churches that will bring glory to Him!

A great big THANK YOU to you, all of our faithful supporters. It is your prayers and financial support that enable us to minister in Zambia,

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Your missionaries,

The Elliotts
