

John & Dawn Elliott—Missionaries to Zambia

Christmas 2014

Many of you will remember our sons who were in elementary school when we left for Africa in 1988. We had a chance to all be together for Thanksgiving and take a picture of our family as it is today, some 26 years later. We are so proud of our sons, their wives, and our four wonderful grandchildren. We thank the Lord for them, and we pray that the Lord will bless you and your families too!

Good News!

We are excited to announce that our budget has been raised and we have tickets to return to Zambia on January 12th! We want to thank all of you who have been praying and giving to make this possible! Please continue to pray for us as we pack, say our good-byes to family and friends, and prepare for our return to Africa.

Better News!

The night before He went to the cross, Jesus announced to His followers: "My peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid."

Peace is something the world is very short of, with problems everywhere you look today. How comforting to know that our God is in control. He is not surprised by any headlines, no matter how unexpected. When we build our lives on Jesus, He promises to give us His peace. Let His peace still your heart and keep at bay the chaos around you, both today and through the coming year.

May your heart be filled with the peace of Christ

this Christmas season.
